All roads will lead to Hedding Methodist church next Sunday night, when the session will be in charge of the Methodist brotherhood, with special music by the Hedding male chorus and address by a former president of Clark university, Atlanta, Georgia.

Donald B. MacMillan, who, aside from holding down the honor of being the man who stayed with Peary, is an instructor at Worcester academy, is said to be one of the noblest types of Christian manhood and is the idol of all the students. They admire him because he does things as boys would like to do them. He gives his illustrated lecture, "With Peary in the Arctic," at the Barre opera house March 25.

The new musical comedy drama, "The Girl from U. S. A.," which is due at the opera house to-morrow afternoon and night, carries the auditor nearly round the world, as its scenes are laid in France, Turkey and China. It has an intense love story, a catchy type of comedy and delightful musical numbers that leave no place for ennui all through the three acts. A capable company of singers and players and a bevy of pretty chorus girls in ravishing costumes, who have been receiving flattering press comments in other places visited, will give the piece the first performance here. The musical numbers are especially mentioned as affording keen pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Oliver were very pleasantly surprised last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kennerston at 20 Church street, when the members and friends of the Hedding male chorus and members of the Methodist church choir met to wish them good luck at the beginning of their housekeeping. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver were greatly surprised, especially when Dr. E. O. Thayer, in behalf of the Hedding male chorus, presented them a beautiful clock, a token of the appreciation of Mrs. Oliver's services as accompanist for the chorus. Mrs. Oliver thanked the friends in a few well-chosen words. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and games were played until a late hour, when the company broke up, after a very pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will be at home at 20 Tremont street after April 1.

A complete surprise was planned by the neighbors and friends of Nellie Basile last night, when they called at her residence, 7 Eastern avenue, when she was out spending the evening. On her return in response to a telephone message, she was showered with linen; and the following, written by Mrs. Lizzie Robinson, was read: "Dame Rumor, always a very busy person, has been hounding you ever these last few days. And what do you think she has been saying? 'Something very unusual is going to happen, something almost unheard of in Eastern avenue, someone is very soon to leave us, soon the wedding bells will be ringing.' We of Eastern avenue have come to ask you, is Dame Rumor telling what is true? We have come with gifts laden with love for you, to tell you our appreciation of a kind neighbor, to tell how much we will miss your smile and your hearty words of cheer and rest and best of all to wish you unbounded happiness." The evening was then spent in a pleasant manner, light refreshments were also served.
